

Admission Eligibility

Individuals are eligible for admission to courses creditable toward an associate degree, certificate or short-term certificate if they meet the following criteria and have completed and submitted an application for admission, certification of in-state residency, and official high school and college transcripts.