

CNC 156: Jig and Fixture Construction Principles

This course provides a basic study in the construction and application of jigs and fixtures. Emphasis is placed on types and functions, basic design and construction, and design and construction, and design economic considerations of jigs and fixtures. Upon completion, students should be able to design and build jigs, fixtures, and tooling.

Credits: 3

Transfer Code: Code C

Lab Hours: 4

Lecture Hours: 1

Program: Computerized Numerical Control

Semester Offered:

Fall

Spring

Summer