

DAT 116: Pre-Clinical Procedures II

This course focuses on chairside assisting with dental specialty procedures. Emphasis is placed on techniques and procedures of the dental specialties including Orthodontics, Pediatric Dentistry, Oral and maxillofacial surgery, Endodontics, Periodontics, and Prosthodontics. Upon completion, the student should be able to discuss and identify dental specialty procedures and instrumentation.

Credits: 3

Transfer Code: Code C

Lecture Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

DAT/ DAT 101 or equivalent

Program: Dental Assisting

Semester Offered:

Spring