

DAT 122: Clinical Practice II

This course is designed to provide the student the opportunity to develop advanced dental assisting skills in chair side dental assisting procedures, radiology, team work, communication skills and administrative duties. Emphasis will be placed on clinical procedures. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate proficiency in the area of chair side assisting

Credits: 4

Transfer Code: Code C

Lecture Hours: 0

4

Prerequisites:

Successful completion of DAT/DAT 111

Program: Dental Assisting

Semester Offered:

Summer