VCM 185: Digital Imaging I

This course covers principles of creating and manipulating raster images using current raster imaging software. Upon completion, the student should be able to produce professional raster images from concept to production for diverse media. Offered once every 3rd or 4th term within VCM program degree cycle.

Credits: 3
Transfer Code: Code B
Lab Hours: 0
Lecture Hours: 3
Prerequisites:
As required by program
Program: Graphic Art & Design