

MUS 282: Group Piano Pedagogy

This course provides a study of the philosophy, methods, materials and business aspects of group piano instruction. Topics include a survey of teaching materials, equipment and software; methods of group piano instruction; and pertinent business skills. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate a knowledge and understanding of pedagogical techniques, materials and business practices of group piano instruction.

Credits: 2-3

Transfer Code: Code C

Prerequisites:

Permission of the instructor

Program: Music