

OTA 230: Professional Skills Development

This course includes the final phase of the occupational therapy process and promotion of the profession. Topics include the role of the COTA in discharge planning, reassessment, home program planning and equipment dispensing. Upon completion, students should be able to present an in-service, design an activity program and/or prepare a home program. CORE.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

As required by program

Program: Occupational Therapy Assistant

Semester Offered:

Summer