

SPH 106: Fundamentals of Oral Communication

Fundamentals of Oral Communication is a performance course that includes the principles of human communication: intrapersonal, interpersonal, and public. It surveys current communication theory and provides practical application.

Credits: 3

Transfer Code: Code A

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

As required by program

Program: Speech

Semester Offered:

Spring

Summer

Fall