

AUM 250: Hybrid & Electric Vehicle

This course is designed to measure a technician's knowledge of the skills needed to diagnose both high and low voltage electrical/electronic problems, as well as other supporting system problems on hybrid/electric vehicles. This course prepares students for the ASE Light Duty Hybrid/Electric Vehicle Specialist (L3) certification.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 2

Lecture Hours: 1

Program: Advanced Automotive Technology

Semester Offered:

Fall