

Medical Assisting - Intro to Healthcare

This program option provides an overview of healthcare delivery systems and health science occupations. Professionalism and interpersonal relationships will be covered. Legal and ethical expectations are included. Students who complete this option will have a better understanding of the roles health care providers play by discipline in client care and legal and ethical issues which they may face. In addition, the student will understand positive behaviors and techniques to ensure professionalism and techniques for good communication. Certification in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation for healthcare providers is included in this option.

Program: Medical Assistant

INTRO TO HEALTHCARE SHORT-TERM CERTIFICATE - Guided Pathway/Map

1st Semester

Item #	Title	Credits
MAT 110	Introduction to Healthcare	3
EMS 100	Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation I	1
	Sub-Total Credits	4

2nd Semester

Item #	Title	Credits
MAT 122	Basic Concepts of Interpersonal Relationships	3
MAT 128	Medical Law and Ethics for the Medical Assistant	3
	Sub-Total Credits	6
	Total credits:	10