ORI 110: Freshman Seminar

This course is designed to provide students the opportunity to develop and enhance their technology skills, explore careers and majors, and develop a personalized program of study that will map out through a portfolio their educational and career goals. Primary focus will be placed on meeting and working with their advisor to develop a strong plan of study, on enhancing their skills in locating and gathering information, and on engaging in critical thinking through reflective journals in their portfolio.

Credits: 1
Transfer Code: Code C
Program: Orientation
Semester Offered:
Spring
Summer
Fall