

Accident Insurance

All students enrolled in Allied Health programs and in the Technical Division are required to have college accident insurance (excluding Engineering Technology). Accident insurance is optional for all other Wallace State students.